LANSING (AP) — Word that former Republican State Senator George M. Higgins may run against Gov. George W. Romney this year was greeted today with glee from Democrats—and stony silence from the GOP.

Higgins, a 63-year-old Ferndale auto dealer and a familiar figure in Michigan politics for nearly three decades, said Friday he is "seriously considering" seeking the GOP gubernatorial nomination.

"If I get in, I'm getting in to win," declared Higgins. "Romney can be beaten, and by me."

Romney, who has yet to announce whether he intends to seek reelection in 1964, was on a tour of the Upper Peninsula when told of Higgins' announcement. He offered only a terse "no comment."

Republican state chairman Arthur Elliott Jr. said "I don't know anything about it. I really don't have any comment."

Higgins said he was "under a lot of pressure to run" from friends in and out of government. Among them, he said, were some legislators.

With the legislature in week-end recess, only a few lawmakers were at the Capitol.

Only Democrats admitted to having heard that Higgins might run.

"Excellent! Very good!" was the reaction of Highway Commissioners John C. Mackie, a close friend of Higgins and a possible contender for the Democratic nomination for governor.

Democratic State Chairman Zoltan Ferenczy termed Higgins "eminently qualified" for governor. He said if GOP voters cast their votes "on the basis of character, competence and capacity," Higgins should win hands down.

Higgins, one of the authors of the business activities tax which became law as an alternative to a corporation profits tax, said he would oppose Romney on fiscal reform if he ran.

Higgins, a native of Montreal, grew up in Pickford and Sault Ste. Marie before he moved to the Detroit area.

Ford Co. Sued In Cleveland For 1.5 Million

CLEVELAND (AP)—The Ford Motor Co. was sued Friday for $1.5 million in U.S. District Court by Reynolds Ford Sales, Inc., of suburban North Euclid.

The complaint alleges that Ford "failed to act in good faith" in cancelling its franchise agreement with the plaintiff last July 29.

Attorney M. Alfred Roemisch said the franchise was cancelled when the agency failed to meet "arbitrary and capricious quotas." The $1.5 million asked by the agency is the value of the franchise, he added.

A spokesman for Ford in the company's Cleveland district sales office refused comment on the lawsuit, explaining that he had not been served with notice of the complaint.

Hoffa Defense Wants Kennedy

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. (AP) — U.S. Dist. Court Judge Frank Wilson may decide over the weekend if Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy should answer a defense summons in the trial of James R. Hoffa on charges of jury tampering.

Lawyers for the president of the Teamsters Union got subpoenas for Kennedy and two other top Justice Department officials just before court recessed for the weekend. The summonses climaxed a hectic day of name calling by the defense and a near fight between Hoffa and a U.S. marshal.

A Justice Department spokesman in Washington said the subpoenas were unnecessary.

"If the judge decides that the attorney general and assistant attorney general can contribute relevant testimony, of course they will be willing to go to Chattanooga without being subpoenaed," the spokesman said.

Subpoenas were issued for Kennedy, FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover and Herbert Miller, who heads the department's criminal division.

The defense wants Kennedy and the others to appear Monday for a special hearing on its charges that Hoffa and his five codefendants are being spied on by government officials here.

Wilson said he would study the matter during the weekend. Meantime, he said, Kennedy and the others need not heed the subpoenas "until further ordered by the court."

Beckwith Waits For New Trial

JACKSON, Miss. (AP) — Defense lawyers prepared today for a legal fight to free Byron De La Beckwith on bond pending a new trial on a charge of murder.

Beckwith, 43, a segregationist, had confidently expected to stroll the streets of his hometown, Greenwood, this weekend. Instead he was still in a cell, astounded by a mistrial.

The all-white jury in the 12-day-old Circuit Court trial was dismissed Friday after reporting itself deadlocked. It had deliberated 11 hours.

Beckwith, who is white, was charged with gunning down Medgar Evers, 37, a Negro, state field secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

Mrs. Evers declined comment on the outcome.

Jurors packed their belongings as quickly as possible and left the courthouse, Judge Leon F. Hendrick urged them not to talk to anybody about their deliberations.

No-Passing Zone Crash Kills 3

BALDWIN (AP)—The parents of three small Mesick boys and another man were killed Friday when two cars crashed head-on on M 37 five miles south of Baldwin.

The Stickney children, Glenn, 7; Gary, 6; and Kim, 8, were in fair condition at a Grand Rapids hospital.

Police said the Stickney car attempted to pass another vehicle in a no-passing zone and crashed head-on with the car driven by Thomas, who was alone.

Keep Hands Off Cyprus, Soviet Warning To U.S.

NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP) — The Soviet Union has injected itself directly into the Cyprus crisis by warning the United States and Britain to keep their hands off the strife-torn island.

While his ambassador called on President Archbishop Makarios in Nicosia, Soviet Premier Khrushchev took up the Cyprus issue in Moscow Friday, describing a proposed North Atlantic Treaty Organization peace force as "an armed invasion."

In identical notes to leaders of the United States, Britain,

Heavy Winds Batter Florida

By The Associated Press

Heavy rainstorms and winds that gusted up to 60 miles per hour lashed Florida today. Tornado warnings were in effect for several hours in the Daytona Beach-Tampa area.

The big thaw continued in the southern Great Plains after several days of blizzard-type weather. At least 15 persons perished, four Friday in a plane crash. Some highways in Texas were coated with two feet of ice.

The Southeastern storm dumped rain over most of Florida and the Carolinas. Gainesville in northern Florida reported 1.3 inches during a six-hour period. About .25 inch fell in the Carolinas.

The tornado warnings were lifted early today in Florida after strong winds snapped power lines. No tornadoes were sighted.

Much of the Midwest had snow flurries. Snow squalls whirled through some isolated areas. Muskegon, Mich., reported 2 inches of new snow in a six-hour period.

Crewmen Jump As Jet Plunges

FRESNO, Calif. (AP) — A B32 jet bomber, without bombs, crashed and exploded in a barley field in western Fresno County Friday night after its crew of seven parachuted to safety.

An eyewitness said the huge bomber appeared to glide between two farm houses 100 yards apart, clip a power line, ram through an irrigation canal levee and explode.

The bomber was based at Castle Air Force Base near Merced, Calif., 70 miles north of the crash scene.

The crash occurred west of the small farming community of San Joaquin, 23 miles southwest of Fresno.

Maj. Earl A. Tucher was at the controls of the craft when a fire reportedly broke out in the tail section.

The crew bailed out at an altitude of 23,000 feet after Tucher circled the plane away from San Joaquin.

The men landed within a 20-mile area and were picked up by Highway Patrol officers and sheriff's deputies.

Col. James Reardon, commander of the 93rd Bombardment Wing at Castle, said none of the crew was seriously hurt.

France, Greece and Turkey. Khrushchev accused some members of the Atlantic alliance of attempting to prevent a solution by the U.N. Security Council.

Khrushchev termed the proposed 10,000-man temporary peace keeping force a "crude encroachment on the sovereignty, independence and freedom of the Republic of Cyprus, an attempt to place this small neutral state under the military control of NATO."

He said the Soviet Union could not remain indifferent to developments so close to its southern borders.

Soviet Ambassador Pavel Yermoshin delivered another Khrushchev message to Makarios, but a spokesman for the Greek Cypriot leader refused to divulge its contents.

Although he has expressed willingness to accept a foreign police force on the island, Makarios wants the troops under U.N. control. The United States and Britain have rejected this condition because they regard it as an opening for Soviet interference on Cyprus.

In the past, the Russians have opposed U.N. peacekeeping operations in the Middle East and the Congo.

Plan Submitted On Districting

LANSING (AP) — The Michigan Supreme Court has received a second Democratic plan for redistricting the State Legislature.

Henry J. Dongville of Scottville, one of four Democratic members of the State Apportionment Commission, submitted his proposal to the court Friday.

Like Ivan Brown of Iron Mountain, who filed a plan last week, Dongville said he prefers the so-called "one man, one vote" principle on which another Democratic plan—yet to be filed—is based.

The Dongville plan would leave only two existing Senate districts intact while establishing the additional four called for by the new Michigan Constitution.

Unchanged would be the district which includes Lenawee and Monroe Counties, and a single Saginaw county district. Ingham County also would be a separate district.

The four Republican members of the Apportionment Commission have advised the Supreme Court they will submit at least one plan for consideration.

In another development, Secretary of State James Hare suggested that the legislature might be required to revise the 1964 election schedule — including postponing the August primary until September — to gain time.

Girl Identifies 12 Out Of 24 In Gambling Case

MADISON HEIGHTS (AP) — Margaret (Peggy) Allen, pert state police undercover agent, identified 12 of the 24 defendants in the Steren Club gambling case Friday.

Trim in a light red wool dress, Miss Allen, 22, a legislative secretary, pointed out the 12 from the witness stand in Justice Court.

Miss Allen, making her first court appearance, named what each of the 12 did at the alleged gambling club.

These tasks ranged from a car parker serving club guests to alleged dice game operators on a pool table.

Miss Allen, a brunette serving as an ace state police witness, took a leave from her job as a secretary for Democratic legislators in Lansing to help in the Steren Club investigation, her police bosses said.

She got into the club in the company of an alleged gambler while posing as a "girl on the town," police said. She arranged to place $200 in marked money in the club.

On the witness stand she was poised and answered questions in apparent ease.

The 24 men on trial, all charged with conspiracy to violate state gambling laws, include Frank Bonmarito of Detroit and Eddie Guarrella of Grosse Pointe, both named by Detroit police as Cosa Nostra or Mafia men.

Some Revisions Of Constitution Are Possibility

LANSING (AP) — The organizers of a legislative movement aimed at revising parts of Michigan's Constitution may have the last laugh on those who, for many weeks, refused to take it seriously.

Nobody is predicting yet that the group, headed by Reps. E.D. O'Brien, D-Detroit, and Gail Handy, R-Eau Claire, will accomplish its purpose.

But two developments in the last week convinced some of the non-believers that, in spite of opposition from Gov. George W. Romney and other obstacles, some changes in the month-old document are a very real possibility.

One of the developments was the final narrowing-down of proposed amendments to those dealing only with elections—the legislature, county and township officials.

The other was the agreement of House Speaker Allison Green, R-Kingston, to serve as an emissary to Romney on behalf of the group, object: to persuade the governor to support the changes.

Green goes unchallenged as the most influential of the state's 144 lawmakers, is the leader of House Republicans, and has Romney's ear even when the governor doesn't like what he's saying.

What he may tell Romney next week is what he told reporters the other day in explaining why he has agreed to act as ambassador to the front office: "The changes are needed to avoid chaos and provide for orderly elections."

Whether this happens depends on acceptance, by both Democratic and Republican caucuses,

Biggest Tax Cut In U.S. History Gets O.K. Feb. 20

WASHINGTON (AP) — Democratic congressional leaders, spurred on by President Johnson, today fixed Feb. 19 or 20 as the goal for final action on the largest tax cut in U.S. history.

The benefits, including more dollars in take-home-pay, would begin about the first of March.

The Senate passed its $11.6-billion version of the legislation Friday, 77 to 21, well ahead of the original Feb. 11 deadline fixed by its leaders.

Even before the final vote, Johnson was conferring with his Capitol Hill lieutenants about speeding up plans for the Senate-House conference to reconcile the differences between the two chambers' versions.

Conference Monday

Sen. Harry F. Byrd, D-Va., who heads the Senate delegation, told a reporter it was decided to begin the conference next Monday instead of Feb. 17 as planned earlier.

He said that the conferees could meet only on Monday and Tuesday next week since Republicans will be leaving town for Lincoln Day speeches.

But he said the explanation of what changes the Senate made in the $11.1-billion version passed by the House would be covered in those two days, so that voting can start when the conference reconvenes on Feb. 17.

Sen. George A. Smathers, D-Fla., another conferee, said that under his schedule the Senate-House group should be able to come up with compromise bill by Feb. 18 or 19. A final vote could come one day later.

If this schedule is met, the benefits of the bill should start flowing about March 1. The Senate version provides that the reduction in wage and salary withholding to reflect the cuts in income tax rates shall begin one week after the bill is signed.

Withholding Rate Cut

The Senate completed its consideration of the bill in seven days, four of them involving night sessions. On the final vote, 56 Democrats and 21 Republicans supported the bill. Opposed were 11 Democrats, including eight Southerners, and 10 Republicans.

The House and Senate versions are identical in their rate reductions for the nation's 80 million individual and 550,000 corporate taxpayers. Thus there is no question of their eventual adoption.

The Senate bill, however, would immediately cut the 18 per cent withholding rate to 14 per cent instead of to 15 per cent as voted by the House.

House managers have indicated that they will go along with the lower rate, which was asked by Johnson, but perhaps insist that companies be given longer than one week to put it into effect in issuing pay checks.

Many firms have said it is impossible to do it in a week.

When the 14 per cent rate takes effect, it will pour an additional $800 million a month into the economy. The administration is counting on this to stimulate economic growth, create more jobs and bring in additional tax revenue.

South Viet Nam Regime Formed

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Maj. Gen. Nguyen Khanh, South Viet Nam's 36-year-old strong man, announced the formation of a new government today with himself as premier.

Dapper in paratrooper's fatigues, Khanh read the list of Cabinet officers from the steps of his office building and vowed to "bring forth all our strength to repel Communist aggression, to bring security to our people, especially those in the countryside."

Khanh named the popular Maj. Gen. Duong Van Minh as chief of state. Minh, leader of the deposed military junta, is expected to have only nominal power.

Minh will live in Saigon's Gia Long Palace, formerly occupied by the late President Ngo Dinh Diem, Minh, who led the coalition of generals that ousted the Diem regime last Nov., was ast Nov. , was amht'z5Dm overthrown by Khanh's swift, bloodless coup on Jan. 30.

Instructions Issued

Later Cuban President Osvaldo Dorticos issued a statement on Havana radio to, he said, rebut Rusk's declaration that "we are making a premeditated campaign to expel the United States from Guantanamo."

"We will claim the base in the moment we consider convenient and will use the ways of international organizations that we will consider convenient for our claim," said Dorticos.

Johnson ordered the Defense Department to make Guantanamo self-sufficient.

With this order, Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara, the statement said, issued instructions to:

"Assure the base control over its own water supply both by conversion of sea water to fresh water and by the transportation of water by ship.

"Reduce the employment of Cuban personnel who are subject to the control of the Cuban government and whose wages contribute to its foreign exchange."

Will Lose $5 Million

Asked if the Cuban water would be used if Castro turned it back on, a Defense Department spokesman said, "No. The new instruction means that we do not anticipate having to use water again from that source."

Administration officials said the President and his advisers believe the decision on the American response is appropriate to the challenge posed by Castro in closing the pipeline to the base.

Despite initial anger at Castro's move the President's advisers now consider it a harassment rather than a serious threat and therefore not requiring more forceful countermeasures.

The actions ordered by Johnson will cost Castro more than $5 million a year when they are fully carried out.

The Guantanamo base employs about 3,000 Cubans, of whom 500 live on the base. The earnings of the 2,500 who live in Cuba proper have put more than $5 million a year into the Cuban economy, giving Castro much needed dollars for use in international trade.

Officials said that the 2,500

Six Injured In Mishap

MANISTIQUE — Six persons suffered apparently minor injuries when a car and truck collided on US 2 in Manistique Township Friday at 4:15 p. m. State Police said a truck driven by George Allen Smith, 19 of Rte. 1 Gulliver, failed to stop at the county road 438 intersection, due to icy conditions. The truck went out onto the highway into a path of a car driven by Donald D. Ott, 44, of Intake Park Road.

Ott was returning from work with three fellow employees riding with him. They included: Jan McKilligan, 50, Rte. 1 Manistique, who is receiving treatment in Schoolcraft Memorial Hospital, Ott and Sylvester Rubick, 47, of 626 Oak St., were given out-patient treatment at the hospital. Another passenger, Charles Atwater, 49, of 546 Cherry St., complained of pain but was not treated.

The right front and rear of the Ott vehicle was damaged extensively. Smith had minor injuries, not treated. He was ticketed for failure to yield right of way. A passenger Mary Ann Smith, 20, Rte. 1 Gulliver, also had minor injuries, a third passenger in the truck, Candice Smith, 8, escaped injuries. The left front of the truck was extensively damaged.

Men's Clothes Slim And Trim For This Spring

LOS ANGELES (AP) — If those clothes on the rack look too small this spring, men, don't worry. They'll stretch.

Everything fashionable will be cut slim and trim. But if you're not built that way, clothes will pull in to fit sunken chests and stretch to accommodate paunches.

That's the 1964 male fashion look, decreed in a preview Thursday by the National Association of Retail Clothiers and Furnishers.

The colors—light, bright, bold plaids and checks. The fabrics—the new stretch kind, that mold the body and don't wrinkle. Some are iridescent. And almost all the fabrics drip-dry. Other fashion notes: stretch shirts of cotton and nylon blends, self-belted slacks and washable shoes.

May Charge Fee At Fayette Park

Conservation Department officials are proposing that vehicle entrance permits be required at Fayette, Twin Lakes and Muskallonge State Parks, effective May 1 this year.

The Conservation Commission will act on the proposal when it meets Feb. 13-14 in the Jack Tar Hotel in Lansing.

Fayette State Park is in Delta County on the Garden Peninsula and was established five years ago. No entrance fee has been charged there in the past because the park was in the process of development and facilities were not completed.

The state charges 50 cents daily vehicle fee, or $2 annual vehicle permit for all State Parks in Michigan. The revenues are used to finance a program of park improvements.

Other new State Parks in the U. P. proposed to come under the entrance fee regulation May 1 are Muskallonge Park on the shore of Lake Superior north of Newberry, and Twin Lakes park in Houghton County.

Twin Lakes Park has been under the county park system, last year was accepted by the state as a gift from Houghton County, and is now being proposed for state administration.

Bears May Get Radio Sets To Aid In Research

Black bears may some day be lumbering through the woods of the Upper Peninsula and emitting radio signals.

This possibility was suggested this week by Elsworth Harger, Munising, biologist at the Cusino Wildlife Experiment Station.

Addressing the Northern Michigan Sportsmen's Association at its midwinter meeting in Marquette, Harger said, "We (Cusino) may even put a few radios on bears and find out where they really go—if we get the funds."

The project would involve live-trapping bears, drugging them so they could be handled and affixing radio transmitters to their bodies so that their movements could be traced by remote control.

This technique, known as telemetry, has been employed by game divisions in other states to track the movements of species ranging in size from ruffed grouse to deer, but it has never been undertaken in Michigan. If funds are made available, the Cusino telemetry studies presumably would extend to species other than bears.

Harger traced the history of bear hunting in Michigan, with emphasis on the special (early) bear seasons, in his address before the NMSA delegates.

"The special seasons haven't affected the total bear kill greatly," he said. "I'm sure we can safely harvest these extra bear in the Upper Peninsula. In fact, I think we could take even more bear up here."

He estimated the U. P. bear population at between 12,000 and 15,000 animals—a little

Expanded Plant U.P.'s Largest

Marquette's position as the U. P. power capital was bolstered Friday with dedication of the third generating unit at the Presque Isle Station.

The addition to the U. P. Generating Co.'s power plant has a capacity of 38,400 kilowatts—larger than the total capacity of any power plant in the Upper Peninsula and before activation of this third unit, the Presque Isle Station was the largest power plant above the Straits. Its first unit had a capacity of 22,000 kilowatts and the second 37,500 kilowatts for a total of 59,900 kilowatts.

This compares with a capacity of 45,000 kilowatts for the second largest U. P. power plant—Copper Range Co.'s station at White Pine.

The third unit almost doubles the previous capacity, bringing it to 117,900, well over twice the capacity of the next largest plant in the U. P.

Power from the station, which is owned jointly by the Upper Peninsula Power Co. and Cleveland-Cliffs Iron Co., will be transmitted over more than 500 miles of line extending from Port Inland near Manistique on the east to Copper Harbor on the west. It will serve colleges, quarries, sawmills, an Air Force base, a brewery—and mines.

Fifty per cent of the output will be consumed by Cleveland-Cliffs mining operations on the Marquette Range, including the huge new Empire Mine near Palmer.

The power plant employs 30 full-time workers and brings in more than $300,000 locally in general property taxes.

Churches Solemn Season Of Lent Starts Wednesday

Protestants Of Peninsula Vary In Keeping Lent

By EVERETT L. WILSON

For all Christians who observe the ancient cycle of the Church Year, Wednesday, Feb. 12, inaugurates the most solemn season of the year. Not the most universal, nor the most popular, but the most serious in its intentions and implications for the individual believer.

Lent has its origins, not in the Bible, but in the pre-Easter fast of the early church. The intention of the fast was to commemorate the sacrifice of Christ with a sacrificial response to it. According to ancient practice, fasting was the common way for individuals to demonstrate a sacrificial spirit.

For most Christians, Lent is still the season for commemorating the death of Christ and our response to it. The observance itself varies considerably, however, for Christian tradition is more a unity of principle than of practice. Even in a single denomination practice varies widely. A Methodist in Escanthe Episcopal Church makes use of ancient traditions which they hold in common with other Catholic Churches, such as the Greek and Roman.

Most of the other churches in town which observe Lent do so with a special weekly service. Specifically the Lutheran and Methodist Churches. The Presbyterian and Covenant Churches stress the meaning of the season in their regular services. In all of these churches fasting is entirely voluntary, although the people are urged to celebrate Lent in a positive way.

Author

Rev. Everett L. Wilson, author of this article, is pastor of the Evangelical Covenant Church, Escanaba, and vice-president of the Delta County Ministerial Association. As a writer of fiction for young people, his stories have appeared in several church publications.

Driver Unhurt In Car Mishap

Richard S. Kirby, 25, of 1718 10th Ave. S., escaped serious injury when his car went out of control on the Escanaba River Bridge on US 2-41 at 1:15 p.m. Friday.

According to Sheriff's officers, Kirby, headed east, had passed another car on the bridge when he struck the median in the road and the car went out of control. The vehicle traveled 260 feet, missed the guard rails on the bridge, struck a highway sign and came to rest in the ditch 15 feet off the right shoulder of the road.

Kirby was ticketed by the officers for violation of basic speed law, too fast for conditions.

Catholics Mark Time Of Prayer And Of Penance

By Msgr. Joseph Dunleavy

The Catholic Church observes Lent as a time of intensified prayer and penance. While prayer and penance have place in Christian life at all times, special emphasis is given these sacred activities during Lent.

Perhaps the most characteristic activity of Lent, as it developed in the history of the Church, is the practice of fasting, that is, the voluntary limitation of the amount and type of one's food. St. Leo, who died in 491, speaks of the fasting of Lent as an "apostolic tradition of the 40 days." In spite of this comment, however, it is not possible to show that the 40-day period of fasting did actually originate with the Apostles of Jesus.

St. Irenaeus, who was active in the Church at the close of the second century, knew of no such apostolic tradition. Tertullian wrote an entire book on fasting and said nothing about a 40-day fast. Like other Christian practices, fast-refrain from physical food. It is in this sense, as a religious penance, that fasting was accepted as a Christian practice.

According to present Church law, all Catholics between the ages of 21 and 59 are obliged to fast on the 40 weekdays of Lent, that is, from Ash Wednesday through Holy Saturday. The essence of fasting consists in this that on a fast day only one full meal is permitted. Two other meatless meals may be taken, but together these should not equal a second full meal.

Those who are obliged to fast may eat meat once on a fast day, at the principal meal, except on Ash Wednesday and Fridays; on such days meat is not permitted to Catholics who are 7 years of age or older. One obliged to fast may not eat between meals, but beverages, including milk and fruit juices, are permitted. Fasting is to be done in accordance with sound principles of common sense. If fasting were seriously to affect one's health or ability to work, it need not be observed.

The spirit of fasting is expressed in the prayer that follows the blessing of the ashes on Ash Wednesday: "... grant that we may begin the spiritual warfare of Christians with holy fasting, so that we may be made strong by self-denial in our battle against the spirit of evil. Through Christ our Lord. Amen."

In the early sixth century in Rome Lent lasted six weeks, but only the first, fourth and sixth were weeks of fasting. For some time eight weeks were observed as Lent, with fasting prescribed on five days a week, each Saturday and Sunday being excepted. At the end of the sixth century, Gregory the Great prescribed that there should be six weeks of Lent, with fasting obligatory on six days of each week.

He spoke of these 36 days of fasting as a form of spiritual tithing, a "tithe of penance," representing 10 per cent of the year's 365 days. Later when it was thought proper to imitate the fasting of Moses, Elias and Christ Himself, four days were added to the beginning of Lent to bring the total fasting days to the 40 days we now observe.

Fasting itself was well known among the Egyptians, Greeks and Romans, but for them it was largely a health measure, or a means of developing physical agility and poise. For the Hebrews, fasting always had a religious meaning. It was a fasting of soul expressed in the fasting of the body. The devout Jew expressed his desire to refrain from sin by his effort to Second Vatican Council in these words:

"At the Last Supper... our Saviour instituted the eucharistic sacrifices of His Body and Blood. He did this in order to perpetuate the sacrifice of the Cross throughout the centuries... and so to entrust to His beloved spouse, the Church, a memorial of His death and resurrection: a sacrament of love, a sign of unity, a bond of charity, a paschal banquet in which Christ is eaten, the mind is filled with grace, and a pledge of future glory is given us."

The Constitution speaks of the share of the faithful in this liturgical sacrifice in this manner: "The Church desires that Christ's faithful, when present at this mystery of faith, should not be there as strangers or silent spectators; on the contrary... they should take part in the sacred action, conscious of what they are doing... They should be instructed by God's word, and nourished at the table of the Lord's body; they should give thanks to God; by offering the Immaculate Victim... they should learn to offer themselves; through Christ the Mediator, they should be drawn day by day into ever more perfect union with God and with each other, so that at last God may be all in all."

It is principally in this sharing in the sacred liturgy of the altar that the Catholic finds the heart and soul of Lent, and of all Christian life.

Northern Given Institute Fund

MARQUETTE — Northern Michigan University has received a grant of $35,000 from the National Science Foundation to help support its fifth institute in earth science for supervisory personnel in the elementary schools.

The new grant brings to $115,392 the amount awarded to Northern for summer science programs in 1964. Northern also will conduct an institute for junior and senior high school teachers of general science and mathematics, and a pre-college science program for outstanding high school students who are completing their junior year.

Bond Interest

Directors of the Chicago & North Western Railway have authorized payment of the current interest for the year 1963 of 4 1/2 per cent on the company's second mortgage convertible income bonds. The payment of $45 per $1,000 bond will be made on April 1.

Celotex Opens Second Project

MARQUETTE — Celotex Corp., believing that greater recreational use of privately owned forest lands can contribute significantly to Upper Michigan's economy, has announced plans for development of a second inland lake area near the Marquette-Baraga county line in 1964.

The corporation, which has its general office in Chicago and operates a large plant in L'Anse, opened up an uninhabited and undeveloped area for summer homes last year in the Three Lakes area of eastern Baraga County. Sixty-two lots, representing 75 per cent of the available lakefront property at Petticoat Lake, were sold. H. D. Harvey, public relations manager for Celotex, notified the Upper Michigan Tourist Association.

The company, in its development program, built gravel roads and arranged to have power lines service the area. Two cottages already have been erected on the lakeshore and a third is under construction. It is expected that more structures will be built this year. A public area, including a boat dock and sand beach, was provided.

Plans for 1964 call for opening up Olson Lake—about one-quarter mile from Petticoat Lake—with 35 lakefront and 10 lakeview lots being made available. In addition, the northern shoreline of Petticoat Lake will be added to the project, making another subdivision of 50 lots.

"All these parcels will be a minimum of 100-foot frontage with depths ranging from 150 to 300 feet," UMTA was told by Harvey. "All are heavily wooded and gravel access roads will be built into each property."

Besides the Petticoat-Olson development in eastern Baraga County, Celotex plans to subdivide a portion of the Falls River, located just a few miles out of L'Anse. Approximately 25 lots, 100 feet wide and from 200 to 250 feet deep, will be offered as trout stream sites.

Announce Sign-Up For Feed Grain Program In Delta

The sign-up for the 1964 Feed Grain Program now is under way in the ASCS County Office, Vincent Rappette, chairman, Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation County Committee, announced today. The sign-up period starts Feb. 10 and will continue through March 27.

The 1964 program will be about the same as last year. It will be available for corn and barley, and participation will be entirely voluntary although price-support eligibility for the crops will depend on such grower-participation.

Farmers who take part in the program will be eligible for diversion and price-support payments. The price-support payment will be made to all participants in the program who plant the feed grains for harvest, and they will be made regardless of the use made of the grain. The producer may sell the grain or feed if he wishes and still receive the payment.

Applications to take part in the 1964 Feed Grain Program may be filed in the Delta County ASCS Office from Mondays through Fridays between the hours of 8 a.m. and 4:30 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bourke of Escanaba will attend the funeral services which will be held Monday in Wilmette.

Chips And Splinters

Contributions To Chips Welcomed

WHITE ELEPHANTS usually are rated as something of little value. But at the Frank Bourke home, 519 S. 8th St., the book ends served to hold Winston Churchill's "History of World War II" on the table—until a space age U. S. Air Force jet plane flew over Escanaba and created a sonic boom.

The explosion of sound jolted the two chinaware elephants to the floor, breaking them, and the volumes of the "History of World War II" toppled.

Bourke, who is controller for the City of Escanaba and has an understandable interest in accounts, in losses and profits, wonders what the reaction might be if he should ask to be reimbursed by the Air Force. "Just how do you ask compensation for a couple of white elephants," he wonders.

School Board To Meet On Tuesday

Several reports of committees, including curriculum, budget and salary, and transportation, will be received by the Escanaba Area Public Schools board of education when it meets at 8:30 p.m. Tuesday, Feb. 11, in the Webster Annex.

Supt. Walter Bright said the agenda lists reports also of the scholarship committee and by the superintendent and consideration of a request for use of a building.

aba, for example, will not necessarily observe Lent in the same way that a Methodist in Atlanta, Georgia, will. In the Methodist Church, as in any other Protestant Church, there are no binding rules governing the observance of Lent.

In Escanaba there is no standard way to observe Lent; the observance varies with the churches. In the Episcopal Church, where Catholic and Protestant traditions find a meeting place, Lent is observed by discontinuing festive liturgical acts, by discouraging parties and merrymaking in the church and by recommending to the people the practice of abstinence from certain foods. Trial By Publicity

The American bar is moving toward more silence on legal issues until they come to trial, following the British practice. But there is not much evidence that the preachment is to be followed by practice. The pitiless glass of public inspection and hasty report seem not at all abated and in fact the situation seems to worsen.

There has not in human history been anything like the television audience that saw Jack Ruby gun down Lee Harvey Oswald, the assassin of President Kennedy, at a Dallas jail last November. The situation immediately created public speculation about the defense of Ruby. How would a lawyer go about saving a man that millions of Americans had seen kill another man, and who would be selected to present the defense?

The unparalleled notoriety of the case made selection as Ruby's lawyer an assignment which would create world fame—or notoriety—and chance for wealth. Everyone connected with the Ruby case seems to be writing a book and his counsel would be able to write a best seller. The Ruby family sifted a lot of applications and suggestions before choosing Melvin Belli (it's pronounced Bell-eye) to defend Ruby.

Now, before the trial can start, Belli has announced that he is suing the Saturday Evening Post for millions for libel because of an article it published about him under the title "A Flashy Lawyer For Oswald's Killer."

This is hardly in the spirit of the bar's press for more ethical handling of criminal court news, but then, Belli is noted for thumbing his nose at the organized bar. And the Post seems determined to capture new readers by derring-do expose-type journalism.

Even more in point is the series of newspaper articles under the double by-line of Jack Ruby and a west coast free lance writer named William Read Woodfield on "How I Shot Kennedy's Killer." In Michigan it ran in the Detroit News. Ruby's sister lives in Detroit.

In this sensationalized series Ruby denies being a hoodlum in his youth and recreates his gunning down of Oswald. "He (Lee Oswald) came out all of a sudden with a smirky, defiant, cursing, vicious Communist expression on his face," he wrote. "I can't convey what impression he gave me. I lost my sense . . . I must have pulled out my gun . . . I must have been crazy."

What a "Communist" expression is might take some explaining, but it's a good line for Ruby's purposes, apparently, and the rest is public pleading for belief in his innocence on grounds of insanity.

Ruby's counsel should certainly be concerned with any public statements by Ruby on the crime, even though ghost written. Newsweek reports newspaper editors offered the series were informed Ruby had spoken into a tape recorder. Woodfield and Ruby hope to collect $80,000 from the series.

At Dallas, Ruby said he never talked with anyone about his background or the case. Attorney Belli said "Jack Ruby has told his story to only two people so far and that's me and a psychiatrist, and we do not plan to tell it publicly before the trial."

So here is skirmishing for public opinion before the trial.

Defendant Ruby will be a drab figure alongside his attorney. Melvin Belli tweaks the nose of the American Bar Association whenever possible (he hangs his ABA membership plaque in his bathroom, says the Post) but no one questions the man's great abilities as an advocate. On over 100 occasions he has won his clients awards of more than $100,000. He has written 29 books, including a 6-volume set titled "Modern Trials" which sells for $135 and which has brought him $250,000.

All-in-all there's not much prospect that the Ruby trial will advance the cause of ethics in criminal court reporting.

Finding The Way
Over The Coffee Cups

By RALFE W. LOEW, D. D.

Some sharp but intelligent glowing color over that essential need. The two belong together.

It is because churches have thus blended their objectives that movements for racial understanding, social concern and economic justice have received their strength.

There isn't a great ethical push in today's society that hasn't gotten its start within these associations of the church.

When the verbal is translated into the actual, then the informed and involved man is produced.

For that matter, when people of differing races, cultural patterns or social status do meet over that coffee cup in the church, there discovering their common needs, there is a sacramental meaning to the act.

Out of these moments, perhaps the critic can find the reconciling act of love. This is happening in many churches; it needs to happen in every one.

Only a child, who does not understand anything yet or a fool is afraid of nothing—Soviet Premier Khrushchev, on Chinese Reds' accusation he is afraid of war.

Well, they aren't starving me out of baseball—Kansas City A's owner Charles O. Finley, who says he'll file suit against the American League for refusing permission to transfer the club to Louisville.

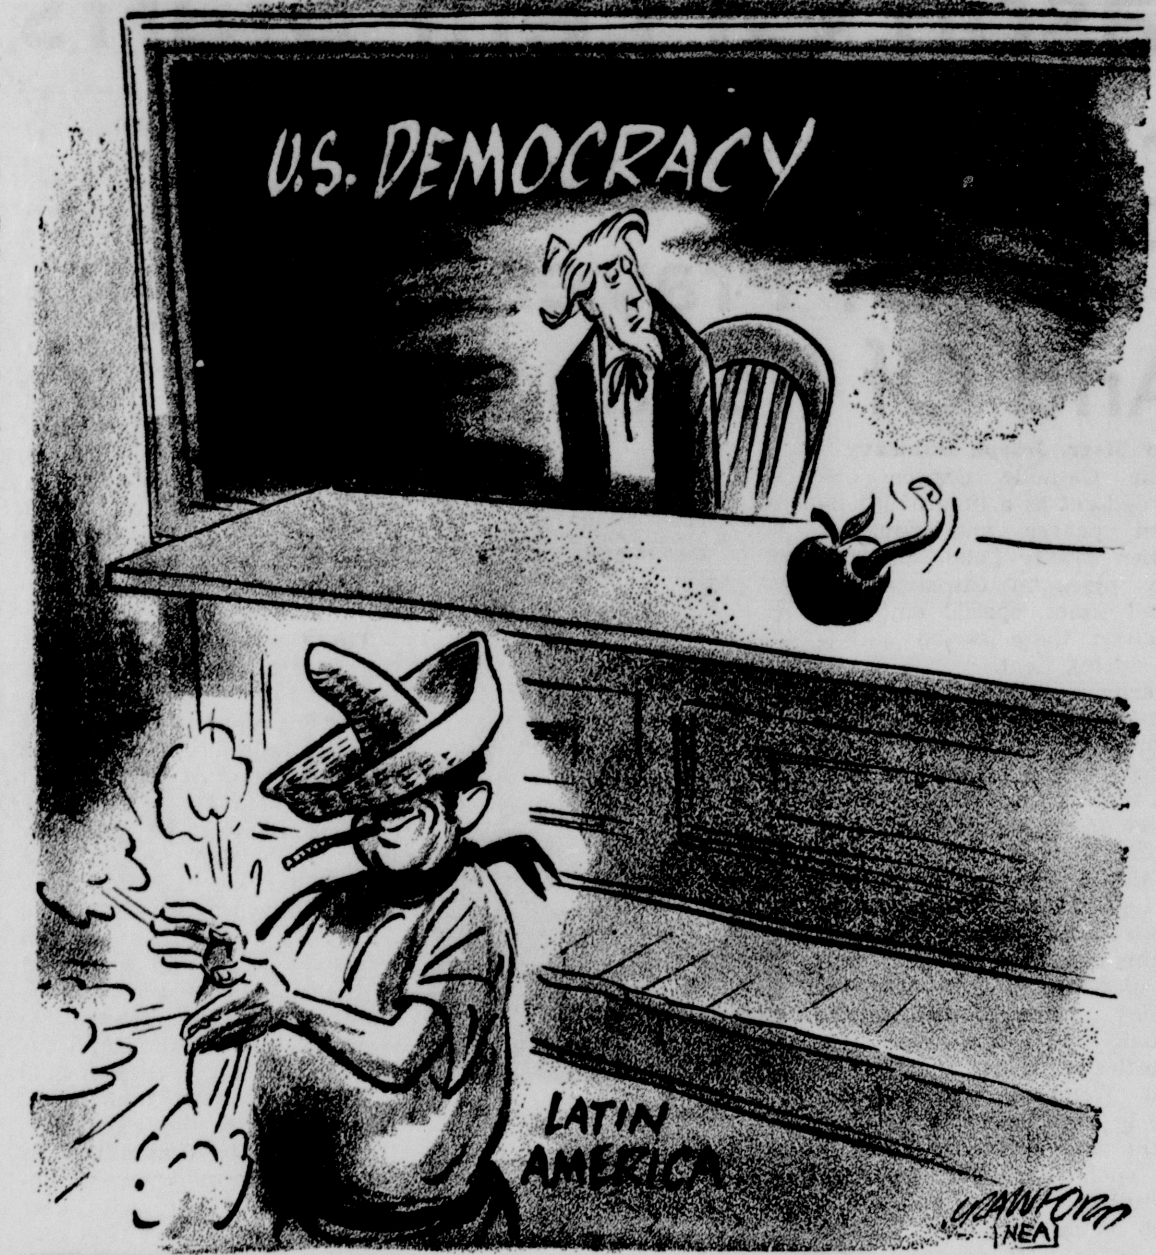

There are building codes, electrical codes, even air conditioning codes—all the various items which touch on public safety have codes. Why shouldn't the automobile?—Richard W. Hoover, legislative counsel for the Massachusetts

So They Say

To produce that involved man requires not only individual faith, but that faith translated into the group. There is that possibility of the so-called "club," which can be redeemed into the seedbed of dramatic witness.

A speaker once protested the stained-glass windows in churches, saying that they gave a false sense of illusion. He wanted clear glass so that the members could see the tensions of the neighborhood and be aware of the constant needs of mankind.

Yet the windows perform another service. They place the pictured symbol in its AAA.

Washington Comment

By BRUCE BLOSSAT

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — The flurry of Negro demonstrations outside restaurants in Atlanta affects the outlook of the contending forces now lining up for the climatic House floor fight on the Kennedy-Johnson civil rights proposals.

Many opponents and some supporters of these measures express vigorous dislike for legislating "under the gun" of recent or current demonstrations.

The Atlanta eruptions can, in fact, puzzle even the most ardent backers of the pending civil rights package.

Until they began in heavy earnest a short time ago, Atlanta was held up as a model of what responsible white and Negro leadership could achieve in a nonviolent, demonstration-free atmosphere.

Suddenly this widely advertised image has developed gaping cracks. The question is why.

The predominant answer, from some of the key Atlantans involved, is pretty astonishing.

If they can be believed, it is a story of white and Negro leaders arrayed together against a small, militant band of Negroes sparked by the so-called Student Non-Violent Co-ordinating Committee.

James Forman, executive secretary of this Atlanta-based group, says the demonstration drive reflects two things:

- Impatience with the foot-dragging of Atlanta restaurant owners who have failed to desegregate their establishments.
- Annoyance at the alleged disparity between Atlanta's bright image and the continuing evidences of discrimination in schools, jobs, housing, public accommodations.

A top white civic figure, long identified with Atlanta's efforts at racial harmony, says flatly that SNCC, commonly called "Snick," "listens to nobody and represents nobody."

He describes the present campaign as a calculated attempt by a hard core of 200 to 300 Negroes—including some "professional demonstrators."

Russell Tennant, Maynard Blandford, Lawrence Tennant, Alphonse Verschure and John Tanguay, were conspicuous winners from other cities—to "dust up the town."

This week's top level meeting involving Mayor Ivan Allen, white business leaders and the long-established Negro leadership apparently aims at isolating and ultimately "containing" the militant "Snick" forces.

There has been no negotiation between the demonstrators and either city officials or the wider white power structure. SNCC is still part of the Negroes' "summit group," set up last fall to frame urgent requests for new break-throughs. But virtually all the many participating Negro organizations oppose the militants' course.

The joint white-Negro leadership plea to the "impatient ones" is:

"Why wreck the town that has been for you?"

Mayor Allen and other white leaders insist Atlanta is still moving down the path of racial progress. They are pressing hard against the "segregationist holdouts" among restaurant owners.

Nearly every government, business and civic agency has outspokenly urged either voluntary desegregation of public accommodations—or a city ordinance to that end.

Thus far, the demonstrating "Snick" cadre is unyielding. Leaders talk of a possible one-day school boycott in mid-February.

The interest for the nation is whether lawmakers here take the demonstrators as the "new face" of Atlanta, or accept the older, shinier image of a city where moderation on both sides proves out.

Weather Curb Rated Hazard

ANN ARBOR—It is said that nobody does anything about the weather, but few people realize the possible danger of weather control.

According to University of Michigan meteorologist E. Wendell Hewson, "There is a real danger in tampering with the weather without knowing what we're doing."

In fact, the incomplete knowledge of the atmosphere is one reason why scientists have restrained themselves in trying to control the weather, Professor Hewson indicates.

The U.S. Weather Bureau has been apprehensive about weather control because of the legal aspects involved, Hewson notes. If weather scientists tried to modify a tropical hurricane by seeding clouds and a hurricane still hit land, he explains, law suits could occur.

Reviewing weather control efforts to date, Hewson says that the main experiment has been cloud seeding. This has increased precipitation in the mountainous regions along the West Coast 14-17 per cent, he says, but there is no evidence that efforts to induce precipitation by artificial means over flat lands have increased rainfall.

Another proposed experiment is to put carbon black, which absorbs the sun's rays, in large areas of the Arctic and Antarctic to change their heat economy. Hewson warns that this experiment could result in so much ice melting that cities close to sea level might be submerged.

House of the Week

It Expands With Ease

EXPANDABLE ONE-STORY—Basically this is a one-story home with three bedrooms, two baths and 1,511 square feet of living area. But there is built-in expansion room for two more bedrooms upstairs, and a third downstairs if needed.

Houses which offer absolutely no opportunity to expand are, unfortunately, as commonplace as they are exasperating. Almost as frustrating are houses that do permit expansion or a backyard that can be usurped for an addition — but to gain the needed sleeping room you have to sacrifice some of the valuable daily living space.

What is truly rare, in fact almost impossible to find, is a home such as today's House of the Week which presents a variety of built-in expansion opportunities so that the often unpredictable needs of the future can be met as they come up, and solved in the most efficient and economical way possible.

This is true of today's house whether the needs are for a great amount of extra space, a small amount, or something in between.

The house basically is a one-story, three-bedroom model with an unpretentious colonial exterior and an interesting L-shaped floor plan. It was designed by architect Herman H. York.

Its basic area is only 1,511 square feet, but its attic contains an additional 670 square feet which can be finished off into an additional two bedrooms and a third full bath — and the work can be done piecemeal, as the new space is required.

Through this sort of vertical expansion is the least expensive (because the structure already is in place) there is an other expansion possibility which doesn't interfere with the convenience of one-level living.

An additional room can be added off the kitchen; again, not until the space is needed or wanted. Meanwhile, if desired, the area can be put to use as a breezeway or screened porch between the house and garage, though even the garage doesn't have to be built until finances permit.

In short, this is an extremely versatile house which can be tailored to the owner's needs whenever they arise or however they might change over the years.

A central foyer leads from the covered porch entry to all principle rooms. It contains not only a large coat closet but also a cleaning closet right at the hub of the house.

A dramatic corner fireplace in the living room dominates the view from the foyer and also provides a comfortable, homey touch in the living room. Another fine feature in this 15' by 19' room is the bow window and its window seat.

The dining room is nicely located as an extension of the formal entertaining area when large gatherings require it. A handsome floor-to-ceiling divider keeps the two rooms separated visually, but allows them to flow together.

The kitchen with its open corner dinette gives a commanding view of the backyard play area. An added attraction in this important room is the large pantry.

Surely one of the most appreciated features to a housewife is the self contained laundry with a mud closet right at the back door. There is plenty of room for washer, dryer, ironing board and storage shelves.

All three bedrooms are nicely sized and have natural sound buffers formed by closets. The most interesting feature in the sleeping wing, however, is the arrangement of bathrooms.

As in most of York's homes, the plumbing has been grouped for economical installation, and in this one the "second" bath has an additional door opening to the laundry area, allowing it to perform maximum service.

The upstairs offers not only expansion space for additional bedrooms but also a large amount of easily accessible storage space. Double windows on each side plus windows in the rear dormer assure plenty of ventilation.

The exterior calls for brick veneer on all sides, and to add interest York has designed brick "quoins" at the corners. "This is a device to create an appearance of added strength," York explains. "It makes the home more attractive and more formal."

Rough sawn pine boards make up other verticle surfaces, and wood panels add luxury under the front windows. York suggests the panels should be painted the same color as the window trim and door.

H-15 STATISTICS

A one-story home with a basic living area of 1,511 square feet. The second floor expansion adds 670 square feet. Covered porch adds 54 square feet. Over-all dimensions are 45' by 43' 2"; for porch and garage add 22' 8".

Foundry Payroll At Record High

MUSKEGON (AP) — Campbell, Wyant & Cannon Foundry, this city's second largest employer, reports that its payroll reached an all-time high of $25,503,000 in 1963 with 3,500 workers, including 2,850 here.

Its employment total includes workers at its National Motor Castings Co. division at South Haven and Centrifugal Fusing Co. of Lansing.

Governor Fills Seats At WMU

LANSING (AP) — Gov. George Romney Friday filled all eight seats on Western Michigan University's first independent governing board, which was created by the new constitution.

The appointments, subject to Senate confirmation, give the school at Kalamazoo its own policy-making body. Previously, policy for Western and several other state institutions had been set by the State Board of Education.

Three Kalamazoo residents will serve on the governing board of the 61-year-old institution.

They are Mrs. Dorothy Upham Dalton, whose term will expire at the end of this year, and Alfred Connable and Dwight Stocker, both of whom will serve through 1968.

Only two other appointments extend through 1968. These are Mrs. Mildred Johnson of Muskegon and Fred Adams of Grosse Pointe.

John Dykema of Grosse Pointe Farms was appointed through the rest of this year. Philip Watterson of Plainwell and Dr. Julius Franks Jr. of Grand Rapids were appointed through 1968.

Dr. Franks, a Negro formerly of Hamtramck, once was an All-America football guard for the University of Michigan. He is an officer of the Western Dental Society.

Man With Pistol Has Knife Too

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — After pleading guilty Friday to an earlier charge of carrying a concealed weapon, a gun, Charles J. Rose, 22, of Hobart, Ind., was found in possession of an illegal knife.

He had been free on bond before appearing in Kent County Circuit Court.

Arraigned before Judge John H. VanderWal, Rose admitted having a 22-calibre Magnum pistol in a car when arrested Jan. 18 in nearby Lowell Township on a complaint. The judge ordered him to jail for presentence investigation.

Deputy prosecutor Roger Boer said a routine search of Rose before taking him to jail disclosed that he had in his pocket an 8-inch knife with a 5-inch blade. Boer said it is illegal to carry concealed a knife with a blade of more than 3 inches in length.

Appeals Court Budget Stated

LANSING (AP) — Gov. George W. Romney sent the legislature a special message Thursday asking that $300,000 be appropriated for the first six months of operation of the new State Court of Appeals.

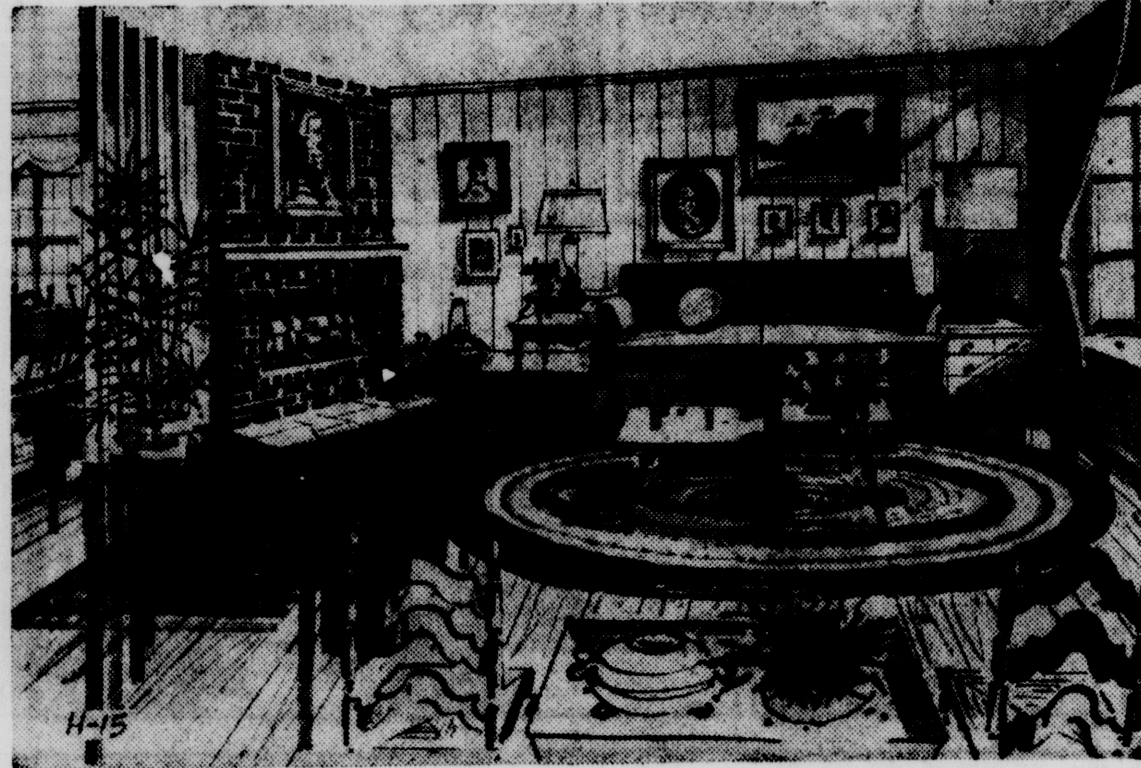

Romney and legislative leaders had agreed earlier that the special message should be used to avoid a problem arising from the language of the new constitution.

Without it, they feared, legislation setting up the court districts could not be passed until the governor's budget bills were rejected or approved.

Romney said the special request would "remove any technical question which might hinder prompt consideration of the court of appeals legislation."

Districts for the court, established by the new constitution, would be set up under legislation to be considered in the current session.

The budget provision would cover salaries for judges and money for operations of the court between Jan. 1 and June 30, 1965.

Two Michigan Senators Vote For Tax Slash

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sens. Patrick Mc Namara and Philip Hart, both Michigan Democrats, voted in favor of the $11.6 billion tax cut bill Friday. The measure cleared the Senate by a 77-21 vote.

Mc Namara and Hart also supported Sen. Albert Gore, D-Tenn., when he proposed an amendment that would have wiped out present tax option benefits for corporation executives. The amendment was defeated, 57-39.

Michigan's two senators voted with the majority as the Senate rejected an amendment to provide for the automatic suspension of the $11.6 billion tax cuts if government spending exceeds $100 billion in any year. The vote was 61-34.

Barker Inquest Finds Death Due To His Negligence

A jury of three men and three women Friday afternoon found that William D. Barker, 86, of Green School location met death due to his negligence, following a corner's inquest with Donald E. Messier presiding. Barker died Jan. 31 of injuries suffered in an auto accident the preceding day.

Witnesses were Dr. Duane L. Waters, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Heminger, Public Safety officers George Danko, Mr. Fred (Helen) Berger and John Milavec, 39 of 614 Arbutus, driver of the car into the side of which Barker walked about 1:30 p. m., Jan. 30.

The testimony indicated Barker suffered a skull fracture and other injuries, which were fatal, when he walked into the right front fender of the Milavec car. Barker was standing on the side of the highway and tried to cross to obtain a ride from Herbert Heminger, who had stopped on the opposite side of the road to pick him up.

Milavec said he saw Barker standing alongside the road after passing a truck in the right lane of the dual highway. He was going south in the inner lane.

Barker was having difficulty with vision and had been hard of hearing. He no longer could read letters, read newspapers with a magnifying glass, and on a recent trip to Gulliver had trouble distinguishing when Barblehead and Gulliver had been passed.

William Wedegartner was jury foreman and serving with him were Rose Marie Marks, John Mincoff, Louis Mueller, Mrs. Perry Downing and Mrs. Harley Brock.

Marriages Today Not For Keeps?

Dear Ann Landers: I'm a high school senior who always thought marriage was for keeps, or as the vows say, "till death do us part."

After reading your column for a couple of years, I get the impression that "forever" only means "until she gets fat or he gets bald, or someone more attractive comes along."

A girl in our senior class eloped two weeks ago. When I asked her if she was truly in love and was sure her marriage would last she said, "If it does not work we can always get a divorce."

I would be willing to bet right now that the girl has no intention of spending the rest of her life with the fellow she married.

Are people different today than they were 30 years ago? I would like to know the answer.—DOUBLE O

Dear Double O: People are the same—and have been for centuries. Improved U. S. standards of living, however, have had an impact on our standards of morality. The old, dependable guidelines have slipped away.

Women work alongside men today as they never did before. They make good salaries and hold responsible positions. If the marriage doesn't measure up to the story book version she can tell him to get lost. And more and more both wives and husbands are telling each other to get lost. That high school runaway bride will probably be looking for a lawyer within two years.

They jumped out to a commanding lead in the preliminaries last week by winning six of their seven fights. Menominee's defending team champs won three bouts and Sawyer captured one victory. Menominee boxers have won the team trophy the past two years.

HIALEAH, Fla. (AP) — Swapson, who was purchased by John M. Olin for $130,000 at the Keeneland, Ky., 1961 summer sales, will campaign as a 4-year-old during the coming Hialeah meeting. He was lightly raced during his first two campaigns.

Arrows Tighten 1st Place Grip

NAHMA — The Nahma Arrows strengthened their grip on first place in the Central League basketball race here Friday night by edging Cooks 76-69 before a large Homecoming crowd.

Coach Owen Peterson's cagers fashioned their 13th victory of the season against one defeat and ran their league record to 12-1.

It took a late spurt to spill the Cooks Clippers who stormed from behind in the final quarter to narrow their deficit to one point, 64-63.

Pat Groleau, top scorer in the Peninsula, led his Nahma mates with 31 points and yanked down 27 rebounds. He boosted his season total to 458.

Groleau had double digit assistance from three mates with Bill Lebadie, Don Johnson and Terry Larscheid in a balanced effort.

Coach Norman Jahn's Clippers, playing one of their best games of the season, were led by Larry Swagart with 27 points.

Army Swifties Equal Records

Uelses floated over 16-1 on his first try and, along with Viljanova's Rolando Cruz, ordered the bar lifted to an American indoor record, 16-5.

Cruz, who cleared 16-1 on his second try and took second when it was all over, missed three times at the record height.

Gladstone's problems were not helped by personal fouls. The Braves lost Tom Domres with five fouls with seven minutes remaining in the third period. Tom Watson took an early shower with four minutes left in the same quarter. Bob Randall and Bruce Hawkinson fouled out in the final two minutes of the game.

Marquette pulled out to a 22-16 lead at the end of the first quarter and stretched it to 44-30 at the half.

The Braves staged a mild threat in the fourth quarter when they pared their deficit to 10 points at 67-57 but Marquette ended it with a quick flurry of field goals.

Gladstone's scoring efforts were well balanced with five players hitting double figures, headed by Hawkinson with 14. He clicked on 10 straight from the free throw line. As a team, the Braves converted 28 of 37 attempts from the line. They hit on only 19 of 70 shots from the field.

Big Bruce Forstrom paced Marquette in scoring and rebounding. The 6 foot 6 inch senior center tallied 28 points on 10 goals and eight free throws.

As a team, the Redmen shot 35 per cent from the field on 26 of 73 and added 28 of 43 gift attempts.

Marquette edged the Gladstone jayvees in the preliminary game, 69-68.

Americans Win Two Ski Medals

INNSBRUCK, Austria (AP) — A pair of daring 20-year-old American students, Billy Kidd and Jim Heuga, rocketed to silver and bronze medals today in the slalom for the finest U. S. men's Alpine skiing performance ever in the Winter Olympic Games.

Kidd, of Stowe, Vt., and Heuga, of Tahoe City, Calif., a 145-pound college boy from the University of Colorado, stunned the skiing world with second and third place finishes behind Josef (Peppi) Stiegler of Austria.

Olympic observers called it the "biggest upset in Olympic skiing history."

Sports In Brief

Manager Yogi Berra of the Yankees hit 12 home runs in World Series games. Five of them were hit in Ebbsfield Field.

The first two World Series home runs hit in Ebbsfield Field were hit in the 1916 series by Larry Gardner of the Boston Red Sox.

On his first trip to the plate in the major leagues, Detroit rookie outfielder Gates Brown hit a home run as a pinch hitter against Boston last June 19.

Tom Nowartzke, 220-pound Indiana fullback from Michigan City, Ind., led the Big Ten in rushing last season with 466 yards.

Manistique Is 74-50 Victim

Johnson helped break the Manistique defense with their deadly outside shooting and swift drives.

The victory was Escanaba's fourth in a row and ninth against five defeats for the season. The Eskymos will finish out the regular season with two road trips to Negaunee and Stephenson.

Coach Rudie Brandstrom's Emeralds, skidding from a share of first place in the Great Lakes Conference, suffered through a miserable night from the field. Unable to hit the bucket even from close range, the Emeralds scored only two field goals in the first period and four in the second — less than Eis tallied alone for the Eskymos.

Falling steadily further behind in the second period, the Emeralds fired in desperation but still couldn't get the ball through the hoop.

It was a different story from the free throw line. The Eskymos converted only six of 20 gift tosses while the Emeralds fired in 20 of 23.

The defeat evened Manistique's overall record at 6-6. Manistique is now 6-4 in Great Lakes action, after sharing the league lead with Sault Ste. Marie at 6-2 through last week-end.

Individual scoring honors for the night went to Manistique's Jim McDonough who hit 20 points on seven field goals and six of seven free throws. Ken Blowers chipped in 11 on two field goals and seven straight free throws.

Escanaba won the jayvee game 60-40.

Trenary Comets Edge Past Eben In 2 Overtimes

TRENNY — Coach Steve Ellis' Trenary Comets gained revenge for one of their two defeats this season and shouldered Eben out of the runnerup spot in the Central League race by edging the Eagles 65-63 in double overtime here Friday night.

The victory was the 10th in 12 starts for Trenary. Two of the triumphs were notched over non-league foes.

It was nip-and-tuck all the way here last night with Eben's Bart Norman scoring the field goal that tied the score 55-55 at the end of regulation time.

In the first overtime period the teams popped in two field goals apiece and it was tied again at 59-59.

Trenary moved ahead on two free throws by Roy Aho and with a minute to go the Comets controlled the ball. Eben was forced to foul and the Comets got free throws under pressure from Gary Flynn, Larry Hill and Alan Rukilla. Eben scored on field goals by Andy Freberg and Alto.

Aho and Wayne Lusardi led Trenary with 18 points while Freberg paced Eben with 17.

Detroit Prep Stars Pump In 50 Points

By The Associated Press

Some stirring individual performances overshadowed a few upsets in Michigan high school basketball Friday night.

Little Jim McMahon, one of the smallest boys in prep basketball at 5-feet-7, rattled the nets for 53 points as his Detroit St. Francis de Sales team bowed to St. Cecilia, 77-75, in overtime. McMahon, a senior, carries a hefty 26.7 average but it hasn't been quite enough. St. Francis de Sales has lost all 12 regular season games. McMahon hit on 21 field goals and 11 of 15 free throws.

Two other boys strained the nets with their shooting Friday. Class A's ninth-ranked Hamtramck clobbered Willow Run 98-57, as 6-foot-1 Ralph Brisker sank 20 baskets and 10 foul shots for a 50-point performance

Russians Show Great Prowess In Short Time

INNBRUCK, Austria (AP)—Every third time a gold medal was passed out at the ninth Winter Olympic Games, it went to a Russian.

It was a tremendous performance that brought the Soviet Union the unofficial team title in these games that formally end Sunday.

It also showed increasing prowess in winter sports for Russia, a relative newcomer to the Winter Olympics. The Russians did not win a gold medal in the Winter Games until 1956. Then they won six. They took seven more at Squaw Valley in 1960.

They captured their 10th gold medal here Friday, making it impossible for any other country to overtake them in the medal count in the remaining competitions.

The latest Soviet gold came in the ladies' 15-kilometer cross-

Royal Given Salary Raise

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP)—Darrell Royal, college football's coach of the year in 1963 when he guided the University of Texas to the national championship, has donned professor's robes, at least in theory.

University regents Friday conferred the title of full professor for life on Royal and raised his salary $4,000 a year to $24,000. This was the first time such action has been taken at the university.

Royal, 39, will remain as athletic director and head football coach at the school, the state's largest, with an enrollment of about 20,000.

Only a few professors on the campus make more money than Royal will be receiving.

Royal's boost in pay and additional title, which did not carry with it a teaching assignment, obviously were the school's way of rewarding him. Texas won the national championship and he later removed himself from consideration for the Oklahoma coaching job when Bud Wilkinson quit to enter politics.

Regent chairman W.W. Heath had promised Royal "more than vocal appreciation" after the highly successful coach halted rumors he would resign at Texas and replace Wilkinson at Oklahoma, where Royal was a quarterback in the late 1940s.

His 1963 team, winning 10 and losing none in the regular season then defeating second-ranked Navy 28-6 in the Cotton Bowl, was the finest of a succession of solid teams.

Bruins Win 18th In Row In Spite Of Cal Racket

By The Associated Press

You can't too that horn, but it doesn't mean a thing to the all-conquering UCLA basketball team.

The nation's only undefeated major college team and top-ranked in The Associated Press poll, the Bruins made it 18 in a row Friday night by wallowing California 87-47.

Fanatic Cal rooters packed Harmon Gymnasium at Berkeley, Calif., to its capacity of 7,200, but their screeching and the blaring of student bands, didn't scare UCLA as it has other teams in the past.

The playmaking of Walt Hazzard and his 21 points plus the shooting of Gail Goodrich, good for 26 points, gave UCLA a 40-30 halftime lead and the to set a new Cosmo scoring mark.

And Junior Mike Merlo dumped 47 points through the hoop to eclipse a 15-year-old Detroit Nativity record as his team crushed Detroit St. Martin, 96-41. Mike sank 22 field goals and two foul shots in surpassing the old record of 44 points.

Benton Harbor's L. C. Bowen scored 40 points as fifth-ranked Class A school defeated seventh-ranked Muskegon, 92-81. Benton Harbor overcame an eight-point deficit to not the count at 59-59 in the third quarter. From there, a Bowen jumper put Benton Harbor ahead to stay.

Mount Clemens Clintondale's Murdock Williams snatched 45 rebounds and scored 23 points in leading Class B Clintondale to an 88-57 victory over crosstown rival Chippawa Valley, a new Class C entry.

There were two upsets in Class A Friday. Sixth-ranked Detroit Northeastern lost to Dearborn Riverside, 62-54, and Detroit University of Detroit High used a halfcourt press to upset 10th-ranked Birmingham Brother Rice, 65-54. Top-ranked Lansing Sexton had little trouble in disposing of Jackson, 81-55.

Class B leader River Rouge walloped Romulus, 99-56, and Class C's top-ranked team, Grosse Pointe St. Paul, demolished Center Line St. Clement, 75-27. Port Huron St. Stephen continued to rule Class D schools with a 69-54 victory over Port Huron Catholic.

Class C's fifth-ranked Wakefield ran into a peck of trouble this week, losing earlier to Ontonagon, 67-63, and being edged Friday by Ironwood, 63-60. Ron Niksich's 25 points helped turn the trick for Ironwood. Meanwhile, Ontonagon won again Friday, 79-69, over Lake Linden with Larry Makimaa's 36 points setting a gym record.

Crystal Falls, tied for last in Class C, ran into Niagara, Wis., and came out a loser, 82-67.

In the only Class D upset, Bergland edged fourth-ranked Mass, 61-60. Defending Class D state champion Britton—Macon defeated Whiteford, 81-57, to take its third straight River Raisin League title behind Phil Benedict's 32 points. The victory was Britton's 39th straight in league play.

In other gold medal events Friday:

Canada's first top award came in a surprising victory in the four-man bobsled competition by Vic Emery's crew. Their time of 4:14.46 left Austria's Erwin Thaler in second place and Italy's favored Eugenio Monti in third place—and talking about retiring. Thaler's total time for the four runs was 4:15.48. Monti's was 4:15.89.

Jonny Nilsson of Sweden triumphed in the men's 10,000-meter speed skating, with a time of 15:50.1. Two Norwegians trailed, Fred Anton Maier in 16:06.0 and Knut Johannessen in 16:06.3. It was revenge for Nilsson and Sweden. Johannessen two days ago led a Norwegian sweep of the 5,000-meter race.

Russia's 10th gold medal also tied the Winter Olympics gold count between it and the United States at 23 each. The United States won its medals over the past 40 years, taking only one here.

Norway still is the all-time Winter Olympics gold medal winner—with 37—including two in these games.

Veck Offered Oriole Post

BALTIMORE (AP)—Bill Veck, former owner of three major league baseball clubs, says he has been approached by a Baltimore Oriole stockholder about running the club.

Veck hinted he was "casually interested" in the Orioles, but then added, "at one time, I very much wanted to move here, but the bloom now is off the pumpkin."

The colorful, controversial Veck declined to name the stockholder, but it was apparently his friend, Jerold Hoffberger, one of the three major stockholders but not a member of the Board of Directors.

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Cassius Clay, boxer, poet, ticket-seller, recording artist and prophet, says he will appear before the Surfride City Council Tuesday night and plead for permission to picket the training halls of heavyweight champion Sonny Liston.

Clay made the decision Friday, when Wiley B. Barefoot, police chief of Surfride, refused to admit Clay and his aides to Liston's camp.

They had made the trip in a bus plastered with signs that said:

"If Liston keeps up this jive, I'm cutting it to five."

"Bear season opens Feb. 25."

And, as usual, "Cassius Clay, I'm the greatest."

Five is a reference to the number of rounds Clay says it will take him to whip Liston in the heavyweight title match on Feb. 25.

Clay calls this activity part of psychological warfare, according to his press agents. They contend it is working. For instance, the publicity men said that Liston was irritated by Clay's trip Friday and looked sloppy while sparring with Leo T. Martin.

Liston cut his workout short and, without showering, slipped out the back door, the publicity men said.

It was the second day in a row that Clay skipped a workout.

Spartans Bow In Puck Clash

EAST LANSING (AP)—Minnesota-Duluth goalie Bill Halbreder made 46 saves to spark his team to a 6-1 hockey victory over Michigan State Friday night.

The Spartans outshot the Minnesotans, 47-24, but the Duluth squad made fewer shots count in building up a 3-1 first period lead. Bob Hill, Pat Francisco and Keith Christiansen staked Halbreder to all the goals he needed.

MSU's Jim Lawrence was the only Spartan able to get the puck past Halbreder.

Dave Stepien added a second period Minnesota goal, and Terry Schercliff and Mike Toc wrapped up the scoring in the final period.

The victory was Minnesota-Duluth's 10th against nine setbacks. Michigan State, which hosts the same club tonight, is now 7-10.

NEW YORK (AP)—Contender Joey Archer hopes middleweight king Joe Giardello was watching the fight on television Friday night when he barely beat aging Holley Mims on an unpopular split 10-round decision at Madison Square Garden.

"I was sluggish and slow and got nailed too often with rights," said the handsome, 25-year-old New Yorker. "Mims is real cute and I learned plenty from him. Maybe if Giardello was looking in he'll give me the title fight."

"Yeah, Joey gave him the invitation all right," said Jimmy Archer, a one-time fighter who manages his brother. "He gave him the invite by sticking his chin out to some of those right hand punches."

They were hoping that the Garden would offer Giardello 100,000 again for a title fight. The Garden, however, offered Archer, the No. 2 contender, a return fight with unranked Mims in March instead.

"That's okay with me," said the disappointed Mims. "I beat Archer even if I didn't get the decision. But that's an old story with me."

Mims must hold the record for losing split decisions. His record is 58-25-6.

Referee Mark Conn and judge Johnny Dran each scored it 5-4-1 in rounds for Archer, the 4-1 favorite. Judge Tony Castellano had Mims ahead 6-4. A poll of the ringside showed an 8-5-1 edge for Mims.

It was Archer's eighth straight victory although he wasn't very proud of it. His record is 38-1.

Archer weighed 161 pounds to Mims' 159½.

Governor Hails U.P. Progress At Dedication

The State of Michigan joined hands with private industry Friday to dedicate the third unit of the Upper Peninsula's largest and most modern electric generating plant.

In impressive ceremonies conducted at the Presque Isle Station of the Upper Peninsula Generating Co., at Marquette, Gov. George Romney unveiled a plaque affixed to the huge 58,400 kilowatt generator, which alone is capable of producing more electricity than any other entire plant in the Upper Peninsula.

He was flanked by John H. Warden, Houghton, president of U. P. Generating and chairman of the board of the Upper Peninsula Power Co., and H. Stuart Harrison, Cleveland, president of Cleveland-Cliffs Iron Co. U. P. Power and Cleveland-Cliffs are joint owners of U. P. Generating.

The Rev. John Adam Alford, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, delivered the dedication prayer, and W. H. Treloar, general manager of the Marquette Mining Journal, was Asked by the Marquette Mining Journal to comment on the announcement yesterday that George Higgins, Ferndale, chairman of the Michigan Employment Security Commission might seek the Republican gubernatorial nomination this year, Gov. George Romney replied with a flat, "No comment."

Higgins said he is seriously considering entering the Republican primary for the gubernatorial nomination in August, regardless whether Gov. Romney seeks a second term, and that he will decide definitely within the next two weeks. A former state senator and former member of the Michigan Civil Service Commission, Higgins is a native of Pickford. He is married to the former Eva Quayle of Ishpeming.

Preceding ceremonies at the plant, a dedication luncheon addressed by Gov. Romney was held in the University Center of Northern Michigan University and attended by 375 persons from throughout the Upper Peninsula.

Calling for cooperation and for individual initiative, the Governor said, "One of the greatest myths in this country is that we can solve any problem with government and money. It can't be done because the most important ingredient in progress is the willingness of people to involve themselves in their mutual problems."

Visits Bank

Prior to the luncheon, the Governor visited the First National Bank & Trust Co. to help celebrate the bank's 100th anniversary and to meet the public. He was presented by Herman E. Olson, vice presiture program for the state as a whole is $200, the bulk of which is for education, the Governor said. "And we're undertaking this tremendous program on a pay-as-you-go basis, and no other state around us is doing this."

"The group primarily responsible for this is the much besmirched Michigan Legislature. It's time we give them recognition for keeping expenditures in hand."

Seated at the head table with Gov. Romney, Warden, Harrison and Treloar was Russell F. Hoyer, Houghton, president of the U. P. Power Co. The invocation was delivered by the Rev. William T. Payne, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, and the benediction by the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Arnold L. Casanova, pastor of St. Michael's Church.

Guests introduced at the luncheon included State Rep. Dominic Jacobetti, Negaunee; State Senator Kent T. Lundgren, Menominee; State Rep. Einar Erlandsen, Escanaba; Glenn Allen, Lansing, state controller; James F. O'Neil, Livonia, a member of the State Board of Education; William G. Morrow, Escanaba, business representative of the Escanaba Office, Operating Engineers Local 324; Walter Rickard, Houghton, president, International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers Local 510; George Washington, Lansing, representing the chairman of the Michigan Public Service Commission, and Fred Hoppe, Lansing, director of utilities for the MPSC.

Teen - agers in Munising "have literally built a center for themselves and the adults," the Governor said in his luncheon address, "and this has sparked the adults, who are all organized to attract industry to their community."

"Businesses are looking for locations, and they are primarily concerned with conditions at the local level. The significant thing in Munising is that the citizens themselves are getting together to do the things that helped develop this country."

Mining Progress

Referring to the specific tax on beneficiated underground iron ores passed in the last session of the Legislature, Gov. Romney said, "We have here today an outstanding example of cooperation between government, labor, industry, communities and individuals."

"The Legislature last winter under the leadership of legislators of both parties enacted taxes on these ores on a production basis rather than an ad valorem value basis. The Legislature also passed another bill that requires the assessment of Upper Peninsula mining properties to be brought into line with other assessments over a three-year period."

"As a result of these changes, mining companies have decided they're prepared to show more faith in the future of the Upper Peninsula."

"Providing that this spirit that I think is getting started here is continued, you're bound to see continued progress in the Upper Peninsula."

The Governor said the state also is trying "to help you give the education and training to your young people that they need in order to contribute to further progress."

Emphasizing that education and training are the keys to economic opportunity, he said that he has recommended to the Legislature this year the largest single increase in appropriations for education in the history of the state—including a $79 million increase for one year for operating expenses alone. He said $9 million has been recommended for planning and construction money for Northern Michigan University and $6.5 million for Michigan Tech.

Gun Safety Promotion For Rock 4-H Club

ROCK — Larry Bradford, Delta County 4-H extension agent, attended the Rock Sportsman's meeting Tuesday evening at the clubhouse to discuss the possibility of starting a 4-H Gun Safety program for young people in the Rock area.

Boys and girls, ages 12-21 are invited to join. Students interested are to sign up at the Rock School as soon as possible so a date for an organization meeting may be set if enough students are interested.

After completing the program requirements, members will receive certificates for gun safety. Many states now require a hunting safety certificate to obtain hunting license.

After the members have completed the gun safety phase of the program, they will advance to shooting on a rifle range with qualified instructors. Guns will be furnished.

Qualified members would be eligible to participate at the U. P. State Fair and 4-H club week at Camp Shaw. A state trooper would attend one of the meetings to instruct members on first aid.

Leaders will be Franz Kuula, Elmer and Walter Linjala, Howard Aalto and Herb Westlund.

Gilbert Larson showed a movie on bear hunting in Michigan. Members also discussed hunting of deer, grouse and rabbit. Resolutions were formed to be brought up at the forthcoming Sportsman's state convention at Kalamazoo.

Weather Kind To U.P. Deer

The weather man has been kind to Upper Peninsula deer this winter. Both temperature and snow depth have favored deer survival as winter's half-way mark approaches, according to W. E. Laycock, Upper Peninsula's regional game supervisor.

The Conservation Department takes weekly readings on 34 snow depth gauges scattered around the Upper Peninsula at strategic places. Although there are some gauges in northern Ontonagon and Alger County that read around 2.5', some in the southern half read less than 6". The average for the Peninsula is less than 1.5'.

Deer require more good nutritious food during cold weather to maintain their health and vigor. Deep snow confines deer and limits their ability to travel and find an adequate amount of food, especially in yarding areas that have been heavily browsed for many years. Good deer survival through the winter and a large healthy fawn crop in the spring are dependent on these two factors. Both have been favorable to date.

As favorable conditions continue, game men are becoming increasingly optimistic, even though very severe conditions the remainder of the winter, with a long, cold, wet spring, could change the picture completely.

Deer are now yarded in the extreme west end and the north. Central U.P. deer are loosely yarded but ranging out some distance to feed. In the south part of the U.P. deer are generally in heavy cover, but not yarded.

The recent formation of crust on the snow has further restricted deer movements even in areas where they are not yarded.

Lunch was served by St. Christopher's Circle. The guest prize was awarded to Mrs. Alice LaFond. Prizes in bridge went to Mrs. Laura Herman, and Mrs. Norma Mattson.

it is a time of rejoicing in many countries and communities. It is the last day of the carnival season in Southern Europe and corresponds to the Mardi Gras of the French. The name came from the old custom of confessing (being shriven) on that day.

Girl, 10, Has Baby In Mexico City

MEXICO CITY (AP)—A 10-year-old girl gave birth by Caesarian section Thursday night, a spokesman for a government health ministry hospital said.

He said the mother was Maria Sanchez Gonzalez, a servant, and the father was unknown.

Castro Wants U.S. To Give Up Navy Base

Only Friday, however, it was disclosed that a French firm has sold 300 heavy-duty trucks to Cuba with the assistance of a financial guarantee from the French government. French informants estimated the amount of the contract at $10 million. The trucks are believed to be badly needed by Castro.

Earlier the Leyland Motor Co. of Britain sold $11 million worth of buses to Cuba.

There have been reports that the Cubans were negotiating in various Western European countries for a variety of industrial supplies which they badly need.

The aim of U.S. policy for several years has been to isolate Cuba from trade with the non-Communist nations and make Castro completely dependent on Soviet support. That support has been costing Moscow about one million dollars a day. The reasoning was that such pressures eventually would force radical changes inside Cuba and lead to the overthrow of the Communist Castro regime.

Another dollar earner for Castro has been the supplying of water from a plant on the Yateras River about five miles outside the Guantanamo boundary. The United States has paid $14,000 a month for the water.

U.S. officials were not sure how the European allies would react to the new appeal to increase economic pressures on Cuba.

Undersecretary of State George Ball made the initial approach Friday in meetings with the British ambassador Sir David Ormsby-Gore and the French ambassador, Herve Alphand.

French Sell Trucks

Ball argued that Castro's new action constituted an example of the kind of provocative moves which on a large scale could create a dangerous and explosive situation once more in the Western Hemisphere.
